

SOME OF THE VENUES IN WHICH THE TOOLS FOR TEENS™ PROGRAM IS CURRENTLY BEING USED

Teen shelters

VA Mental Health Dept.

Parks and Recreation Departments

Centers for the homeless - both adults and children

Confirmation classes and youth groups

Bar Mitzvah classes and parents of students in same

This is being taught as an adult course under various titles

Women's retreats are being designed around the program

Senior citizens groups have study groups on this material

Camp Fire Girls is integrating the program in some of their Youth Centers

The Juvenile Rehabilitation Division of the Mid-America Council of Boy Scouts is using this as one of their in-house programs

Prison ministries

Youth Centers for "at risk" kids

Health classes in Catholic high schools

The Course is being showcased periodically to teachers taking a counseling class at the University of Nebraska, Omaha campus.

The curriculum Coordinator of the World-Wide Association of Unity Churches in Kansas City has endorsed the program and is making information about it available to their Directors of Education both by mail and at their summer meetings.

The Tools program was presented at the International Youth Conference in Holland.

Jonathan Goldman features it at his annual internationally-attended summer conferences.

Boys and Girls Clubs in Omaha have integrated it into their program as a pilot program which may eventually go to other cities

The program is being used in at least 12 other countries

A Spanish translation of the manual is in progress

Women's Health programs at the Chopra Center, Savannah Memorial Hospital, Savannah GA

Tom Osborne's mentoring program in Lincoln, NE.

Parents are teaching the concepts to their children.